Property Description

The 1101 Hollywood and Vine Loft ,a live/work residence in one of the most recognizable iconic intersections in the world.

The historical Equitable Building was built in 1929 on the northeast corner of Hollywood Blvd. & Vine St. and designed by Aleck Curlett. Across the street from the W Hotel, Pantages Theatre, Starbucks, , Katsuya, Trader Joe's, Equinox, SoulCycle, CVS and so much more. The building offers a 24-hour doorman and valet parking. Enjoy the Roof top deck complete with BBQ, outdoor dining , couches and chaise lounges with stunning views from the Hollywood Sign to the ocean. The perfect place to relax , take meetings or entertain.

The 1101 Loft has a breezy floor plan with panoramic views of the Hollywood Hills ,Capitol Records and beyond. A study in contemporary urban elegance. One of only two lofts in the building with double pane windows & black out curtains . Beautifully furnished, Viking appliances and concrete floors . Metro station across the street allows for 15 min easy commute to DTLA and beyond. Urban NY style living in the heart of Los Angeles's entertainment district.
