Property Description

Just imagine your family enjoying the front yard or relaxing on the patio at your new home sweet home! Your home is ready to move in. As you enter into it you will find wonderful wood floors and a spacious formal living area with a double-sided brick fireplace. Then you move into the dining area and the updated spacious galley style kitchen featuring lots of natural light. The kitchen is also situated to overlook the dining area and the backyard that's great for outdoor/indoor entertainment and family gatherings. Make your way down the hall to the spacious BONUS room in the home with an additional space to be used as an office, fourth bedroom, craft, or reading room. Down the other hall, your home also features three bedrooms and two bathrooms. The master bedroom has a walk-in closet with a vanity seat as well and of course, you will have your very own en-suite bathroom. The additional guest bathroom has been remodeled. The backyard features a covered patio area for the laundry, custom-built sheds (included), and work areas. This home has plenty of parking behind in the alley and there is also an attached one-car garage. The home is nicely landscaped and is gated all the way around. You do not want to miss this home! Make us an offer we can't refuse!
